

A Tale of Two Cities

Extra Credit Opportunity

Throughout Dicken's novel A Tale of Two Cities, the theme of resurrection is prominent, both in the idea of the individual being resurrected, and a society. Our unit question is about the idea of "journey" and how characters journeys are impacted by the societal journey. Watch the 1980 adaptation of A Tale of Two Cities. Complete the Movie Guide, and type a 2 page essay explaining how this adaptation shows the theme of resurrection and journey.

Formatting Requirements

- 12 Pt Times New Roman Font
- Typed & Double Spaced
- MLA Header on upper left side of the first page
- Centered Title
- Indented Paragraphs
- No First Person pronouns (you, I, we, etc).

Content Requirements

- 1 paragraph introduction: summary of the film, definition of the term "resurrection" and "journey", thesis statement to introduce topic of the essay.
- 3-4 body paragraphs, each including one cited quotation from the film, and explanation of the quotation, and how the quotation shows the theme of resurrection and/or journey.
- A conclusion, consisting of a one-sentence closing statement.

Assessment: 20 points (Test/Project category)

A Tale of Two Cities Movie Questions