

Bennett High School Students and Families,

We wanted to notify you that we will begin second semester on an e-learning remote schedule for one week January 4th through the 7th. That week all students will participate in classes remotely from 8:00am-11:30am. Please see the attached schedule in your email for specific details. Beginning on January 11th we will return to a yellow phase of learning where all in-person students return to school four days a week. We appreciate your patience and support as we monitor the health and safety of our students and staff.
